FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SCI Fusion360 Re-Locates to Prosperity Place in Charlotte

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA, August 10, 2012 --- D. Keith Sides, CEO of SCI Fusion360, announced that effective September 1st, our office will be re-locating to Prosperity Place office park, bordering Charlotte's highly acclaimed University Research Park on Mallard Creed Road.

Mr. Sides stated "Fusion360 has grown, and we were looking for the best facility and location to accommodate this growth. Prosperity Place is a perfect fit – a Class A facility that offers the additional space required and outstanding amenities, including a large conference room and onsite fitness facilities. We are excited to make the move."

Fusion360's new offices will be located at 10200 Mallard Creek Road, Suite 102, Charlotte, NC 28262.

Fusion360 offers an extensive range of architecture, design, development, and programming services from the simplest of applications to the most demanding multilevel, real time applications. We work with our clients to clearly define development objectives and deliver cost effective solutions. Through the use of multiple partners, Fusion360 is positioned to rapidly source any project and is focused on development excellence. Our objective is to exceed our clients' expectations every day and to assist our clients in exceeding their IT goals.
